

Ti 2:2 and what you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses entrust to faithful men, who will be able to teach others also.

A Picture is Worth a Thousand Words

This is a familiar saying, and I realize that nowadays, many people are busy and also accustomed to brief snippets of information due to the prevalence of social media. Therefore, I decided that this ministry update would consist of photos accompanied by a few words of explanation.

As mentioned last month, we sent off Pastor Ordiales to continue teaching pastors on Mindoro. This time, the topic focused on the foretelling of the Messiah, Jesus, in the Old Testament. Several pastors, including tribal pastors, attended. The women in the photo are the wives of some of the pastors who accompanied them.

We are acquiring this Tagalog translation of a well-known book from the USA in order to teach a basic Theology course to these pastors.

Pastor Rubio and his wife are our team in southern Mindoro. I wish I had half his energy. In addition to pastoring a church in San Juan, he constantly climbs the mountains with building materials to construct small churches for the tribes and bring them the Word of God. In addition, he bakes brownies and cupcakes to sell at the local high school for some income but mostly to interact and build relationships with the young people so that he can reach out and teach them the Scriptures.

Photos like this are published regularly by the 203rd Infantry to inform the people of areas of conflict so that the people can avoid them. The arrow on the left is where Pastor Rubio ministers, He also ignores the photos and goes where God leads.

 Total Materials P34,240

Above is the start of church number twelve for the tribes in the mountains. Your support has helped Timothy Mission build these. On the left is a bill of materials for the construction supplies. P34240 currently equals $600.00 US. Also on the left is Pastor Rubio with a truckload of materials to take up to the construction site. They will drive to the base of the mountain, and then he and some of his church members will carry them for nine miles up to the site.

The good ole 203rd infantry, assigned to maintain “peace and order,” as they say, on the island of Mindoro. There was a time when Judy and I shared a barracks with them.

The 203rd evacuating civilians from a “hot area”.

The 203rd assisted with a medical outreach held by the first church we helped start. Checkups were done for free for the local residents, and medicines were distributed as needed. In the photo on the right, you will see a box of blue books at the end of the table. They are Bibles that were given to each patient.

Disability Ministry is ongoing. We have provided surgeries for children that have given them the ability to walk. Where that is not possible, we provide wheelchairs. I have lost count of how many. This woman lost the ability to walk and spent her days in the home you see behind her in the photo below, but now she is able to get out and about.

Children's Village

A generous one-time gift from a church in Pennsylvania allowed us to completely furnish and equip the first cottage that has been completed.

Insert part B into Part D as seen in Figure H; worked out pretty well. That is because Filipinos are smart and read the instructions.

Yes, that is a shower without a stall, which is very common in the Philippines and many parts of the world. At least the kids will have hot showers, thanks to the on-demand water heater on the wall. Hot water showers are very uncommon for the vast majority of the population in the Philippines and most of Asia.

God chose to support everything you see in our prayer letters through Timothy Mission. We strive to be good stewards of the gifts that come in. No funds go to support me. I am, like Paul, a "tent maker." He worked to support himself and not burden others, as I do. Some of the pastors we support are bi-vocational, but they nevertheless need additional support through Timothy Mission. A generous gift from a farmer in New Jersey enabled us to purchase land for one of the tribes to cultivate rice and coffee. That provides food for the people and a cash crop to meet other needs. They are doing their part in a country where the median income is $396.00 a year. Most of those we serve are at that level. Therefore, we still need support from those committed to missions. Please use the form on the next page to help us fulfill the mission God has led us to do.
